Day 2 | Paris – Honfleur

Wake up to the scent of warm coffee and buttery croissants as you get ready for your first full day of our adventure together. As we journey out of Paris, settle into the minicoach and look out for the glistening Champs-Élysées lined with luxury storefronts, as well as the majestic Arc de Triomphe that stands stoic in the centre of swirling Parisian traffic.

Our first stop will be Giverny and the ivy-clad home of Claude Monet, one of the world's most celebrated Impressionist painters. Be transported back in time as you admire your surrounds – where walls are adorned with lemon yellow and eggshell blue paints, gardens erupt in a kaleidoscope of colours and a gentle breeze whispers through the branches of a willow. It's easy to see how Monet spent over four decades here.

With its colourful, half-timbered medieval houses and narrow cobblestone streets, our home for the next two nights will be the charming port town of Honfleur. You may recognise it as the subject of a fair few Impressionist paintings (looking at you, Eugène Boudin!). We'll spend the evening at our leisure, absorbing the rugged maritime atmosphere, before settling down for the night in a characterful 18th-century Norman mansion.

Day 3 | Honfleur – Normandy – Honfleur

From the buzz of its bustling market to the sailboat-lined 17th-century harbour, this morning, our Tour Leader will help us discover the heart of Honfleur on an orientation tour. After walking up an appetite, we'll have free time for lunch. Why not opt for some fresh seafood for a taste of quintessential local flavours? We hear the sole meunière is a particular favourite: expect expertly fried sole served with a butter, lemon and parsley sauce – talk about catch of the day!

Next, we'll trace the Route du Cidre in Normandy in our minicoach, pausing at a local calvados producer to sample the fruits of the region's orchards. From cool, crisp ciders to heady, amber-hued calvados, a treat for the tastebuds awaits. After filling our bags with unique artisanal produce (for a taste of Normandy back home, of course), we'll return to Honfleur. En route, spy the picture-perfect thatched roof cottages that make this region so unique.

Back in Honfleur, we'll have the evening to spend as we wish. Whether it's relaxing by the pool of our thoughtfully selected hotel, walking up to the Panorama du Mont-Joli for sweeping views over the quaint town, or seeking out a local haunt for dinner – your knowledgeable Tour Leader is sure to have plenty of recommendations ready to share.

Day 4 | Honfleur – Normandy Beaches and Bayeux – Arromanches-les-Bains

Today we'll turn our attention to the windswept shoreline of the Normandy beaches, where we'll explore the sites of the 1944 D-Day landings. There's also the opportunity to pay a poignant visit to the American Cemetery and Memorial at Colleville-sur-Mer, where we can take the time to reflect whilst overlooking the expansive Omaha Beach.

Next, in keeping with this morning's theme, we'll make a stop at the Memorial Museum of the Battle of Normandy in Bayeux where we'll delve deeper into the details of the D-Day landings. Hear spine-tingling stories from those who lived through the event and get up close to fascinating artefacts used by the soldiers during the battle.

To round off our day, we'll move on to Arromanches-les-Bains – our home for the night. Having settled into our accommodation, a beautifully restored hotel that's moments from the beach, we'll enjoy a dinner with the group, sharing stories and reflections from the day.

Tales of a mysterious apparition, the Hundred Years' War and powerful tides await – we're off to the enchanting UNESCO World Heritage Site of Mont Saint-Michel where we'll cross the iconic walkway to wander the buzzing island village. Weave your way up to the magnificent Abbey along La Grande Rue, where timber-clad medieval buildings hug the path and the scent of sizzling crêpes fill the air. The viewpoint from the North Tower is also well worth a visit – feel the wind whip past as the bay stretches out before you, shimmering like reams of satin.

Then, as we make our way to storybook Dinan, we'll stop off for a photo opportunity at Dol-de-Bretagne where we'll see the famous Menhir de Champ-Dolent, a Neolithic megalith. Your Tour Leader is sure to have some intriguing legends about this historical monument up their sleeve!

Plunge deep into fairytale territory today as we board the minicoach towards the Loire Valley. Here, the skyline is peppered with the turrets of ancient castles, vineyards etch their way across green, rolling hills and orchards overflow with an abundance of sun-kissed fruit.

Our first port of call will be Angers, where we'll pay a visit to the city's castle – an imposing structure that dates back to the 9th century. Why not meander through the castle's impressive towers and inhale the fresh fragrance of its garden's herbs? As you explore this formidable site, don't miss the Apocalypse Tapestry – a vast work depicting the story of the apocalypse from the Book of Revelation. Commissioned by Louis I, it is said to be one of the oldest known medieval tapestries and is yours to discover today.

Day 8 | Chinon – Château de Villandry – Chinon

Rise and shine! Today, we're visiting the mesmerising Château de Villandry. One of the last châteaux built during the Renaissance, it's famous for its impeccably manicured gardens and architectural elegance.

Spy the intricate frescoes and wooden panelling of its majestic interiors. Peek out of an upstairs window for a birds-eye view of the parterre planting. Meander through the myriad gardens, where rich colours and textures will ignite your imagination.

Taking in so much beauty is thirsty work, so on our way back to Chinon we'll enjoy a detour at a local winery, whose 12th-century cellars are nestled beneath Chinon's medieval fortress. Did you know, the Loire is famous for its white wines, crafted by the likes of luscious Sauvignon Blanc and Chenin Blanc grapes? Linger over a delicious glass (or two!) of the region's finest and let their fresh flavours and fruity aromas enchant as you raise a toast with the group to another wonderful day. Santé!

Day 9 | Chinon – Château de Chenonceau and Amboise – Montlouis-sur-Loire

Fuel up on golden croissants and fresh orange juice, we've got another day of exploring on the cards. One of the Loire Valley's precious jewels awaits: Château de Chenonceau. Built in the early 1500s, this spectacular château was later expanded to include a five-arched bridge that spans across the River Cher. On a still, clear day, don't miss the chance to see the water reflect the iconic château like a mirror.

Cast yourself back to medieval times, cooking in the wooden-beamed, limestone-walled kitchens, or imagine yourself at a royal reception in the Grand Gallery where a chessboard-patterned floor stretches before you. As we round off our visit, we'll take some time to stroll through the idyllic gardens – where tulips dance in the breeze, manicured hedges stand steadfast and elegant water features babble.

On our way back to Paris, we'll make a brief stop in Amboise, the town where Leonardo da Vinci lived out the last years of his life. Then, it's off to our very own château for the night where we turn into lords and ladies of the manor! Our final French feast as a group awaits for dinner and it's the perfect chance to reminisce on the soul-stirring experiences we've shared together.

Passports and visas

Depending on your nationality, you may require a visa to enter certain countries.

Expertly crafted small-group tours

It is your responsibility to obtain visas prior to your tour's departure. To determine which visas you'll need, you can consult either your own government's website or the government websites of the countries in which you will be travelling.

Please note: Some visas can take up to six weeks to acquire, so don't leave it until the last minute. Culture shock, homesickness and periods of feeling down happen regardless of age. Be rest assured that if you're feeling low, your Tour Leader and Driver will do their utmost to make you smile.

Measures you can take to look after your mental health and wellbeing while on the road with us are:

- Call loved ones. Hearing a familiar voice whilst in an unfamiliar destination can help ground you and remind you you're not alone.
- Eat well. Nobody feels their best when they're hungry. There are plenty of nutritious culinary delights to be savoured along the road!
- Integrate with your fellow guests. The more you socialise with the group, the less likely you'll feel homesick.

Transport

We travel in premium mini-coaches equipped with comfortable seats, air conditioning and large windows for enjoying the view.

With far more flexibility than a standard-size coach, we're able to take the scenic route – winding through beautiful countryside to the heart of tiny villages and coastal towns.

FAQs

Which type of hotels will we stay in?

Our thoughtfully selected accommodation is full of charm and historic details – expect elegant country inns, grand town centre hotels and even the odd castle! For this reason, rooms vary in size, and most hotels don't have lifts – meaning you'll likely need to access your room via stairs. Porterage will be included wherever possible.

Although air conditioning is mostly unavailable in historic buildings, fans will be provided during hot spells. Most hotels have bathtubs with overhead showers (rather than walk-in showers), so you'll be able to enjoy a soak at the end of the day.

What's breakfast like in France?

A typical French breakfast spread is simple but wholesome. It usually includes a range of cold meats, cheeses and bread, buttery homemade pastries, freshly squeezed juices and a hot drink of your choice. If you have any dietary requirements, we'll ask about these before you begin your tour and accommodate them whenever we can.

That's everything!

We can't wait to welcome you on tour.
